who have willingly sacrificed themselves so we could see this day, we happily dedicate this 1956 Yearbook.

We realize that we owe them very much, and for the many times we thoughtlessly took their help for granted, we now say thanks for helping us reach this important step in our lives.

We hope we have been and will continue to be a credit to them.

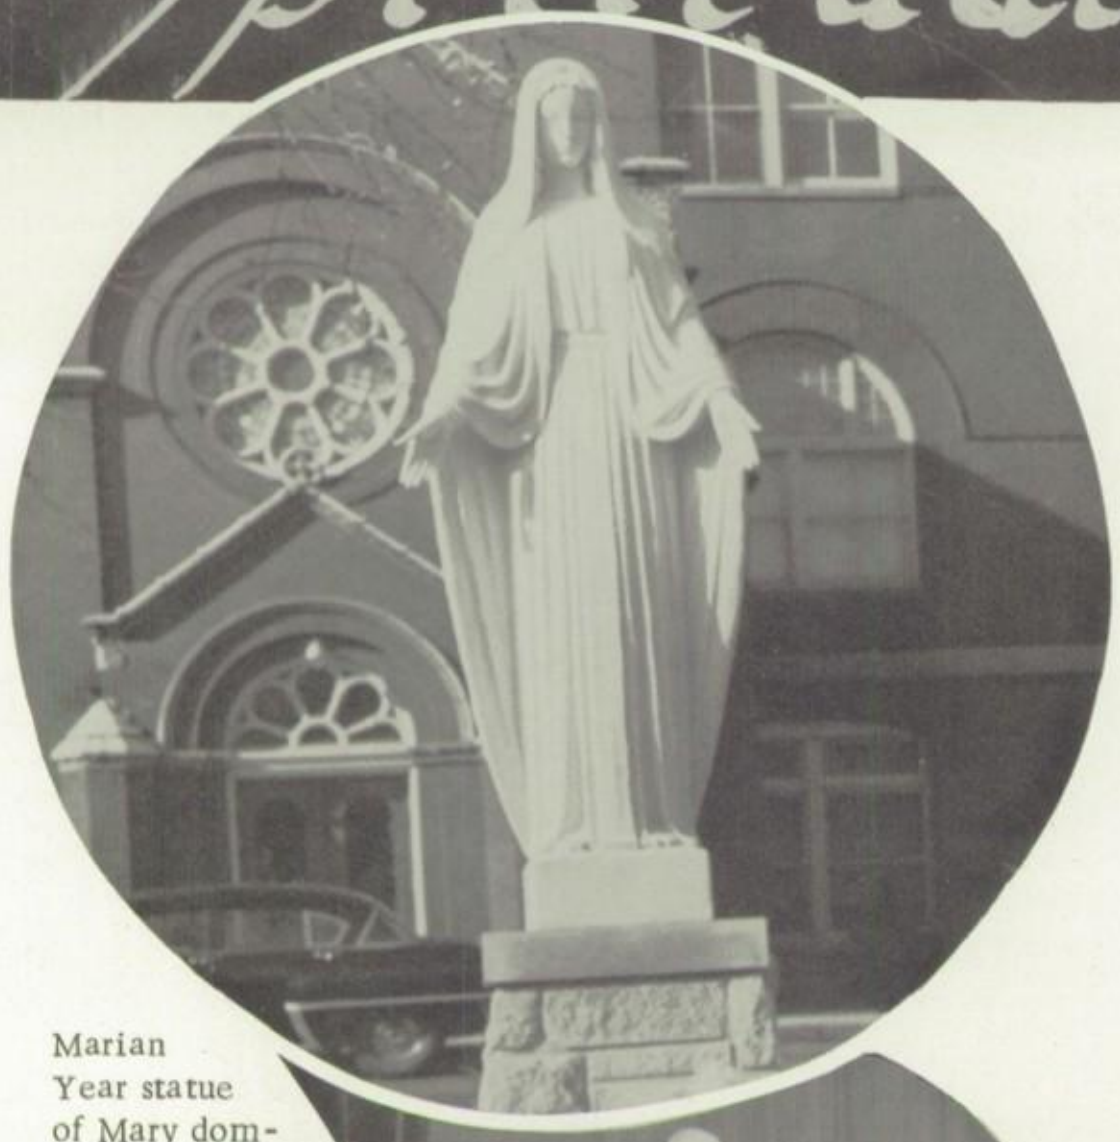
Spiritual Life...



Marian Year statue of Mary dominates school campus.

Fr. Girse stresses the spiritual life.

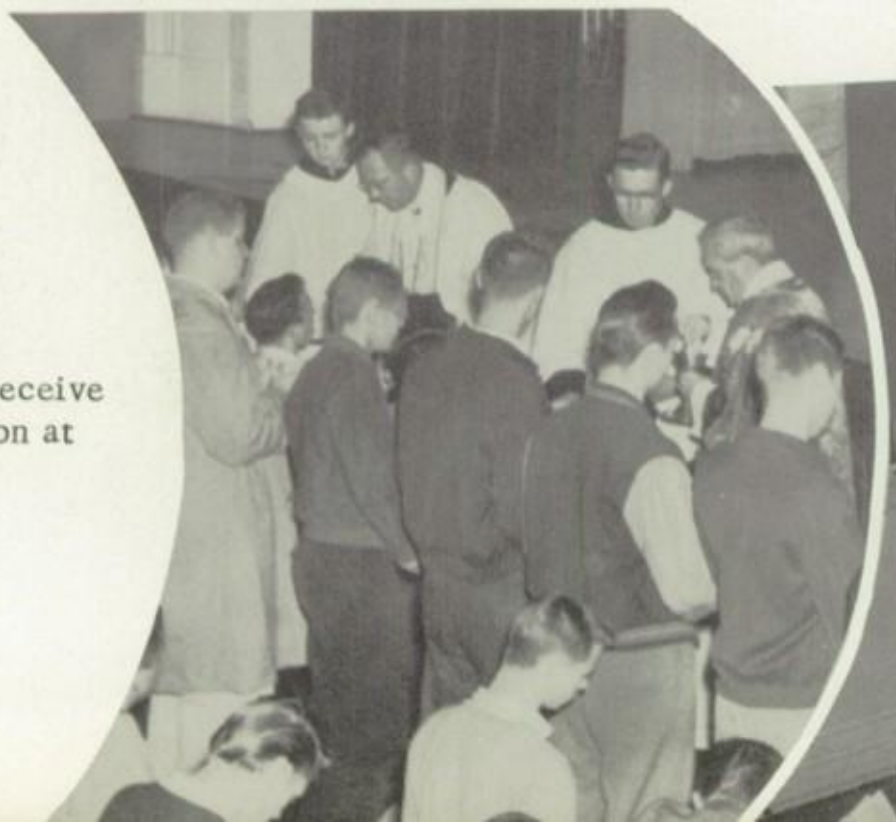
RETREAT . . .

From October 24 to 28 the students of St. Mary's observed their annual retreat.

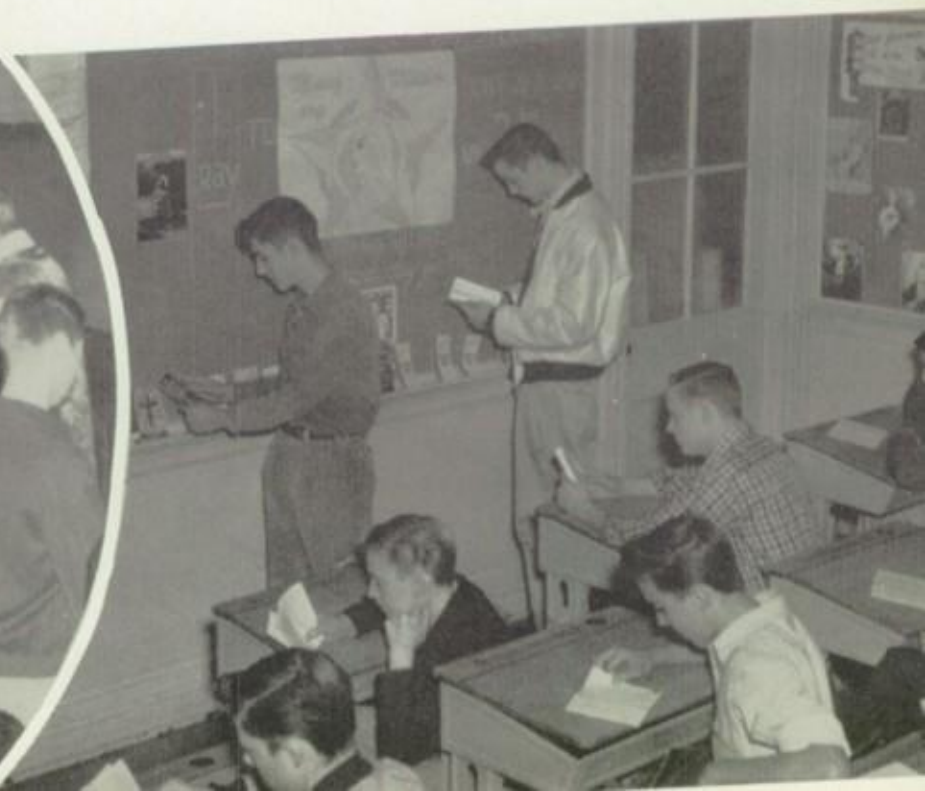
These were days of grace for the men of St. Mary's who had the opportunity of daily Mass, Communion, visits to Chapel and recitation of the Rosary.

Confessions were heard daily. With the increase of sanctifying grace and the help of the silence that predominated during these days the boys were encouraged to give serious thought to their vocation.

Good use of retreat time was continually stressed by the two retreat masters, Rev. Milton Girse, C.SS.R. and Rev. William Ryan, C.SS.R.



Many students receive Holy Communion at retreat Mass



L. Wiese and C. Bucher select a booklet to read.

. . . . SODALITY

KNOW -- LOVE -- SERVE MARY

All Sodalists strive to KNOW and, through knowing, to LOVE and, out of love, TO SERVE MARY. Each Sodalist has taken up the challenge that TOTAL CONSECRATION to Mary demands of him.

Through his Sodality work he learns about Mary and her mission in the world and his part in that mission. He sees the need for his own spiritual development. Prayer and the Sacraments are the means the Sodality offers him to accomplish this end. Through the weekly sodality meetings the Sodalist gradually comes to realize the obligation he has to strive for sanctity. As another son of Mary he can help lead others to Mary.

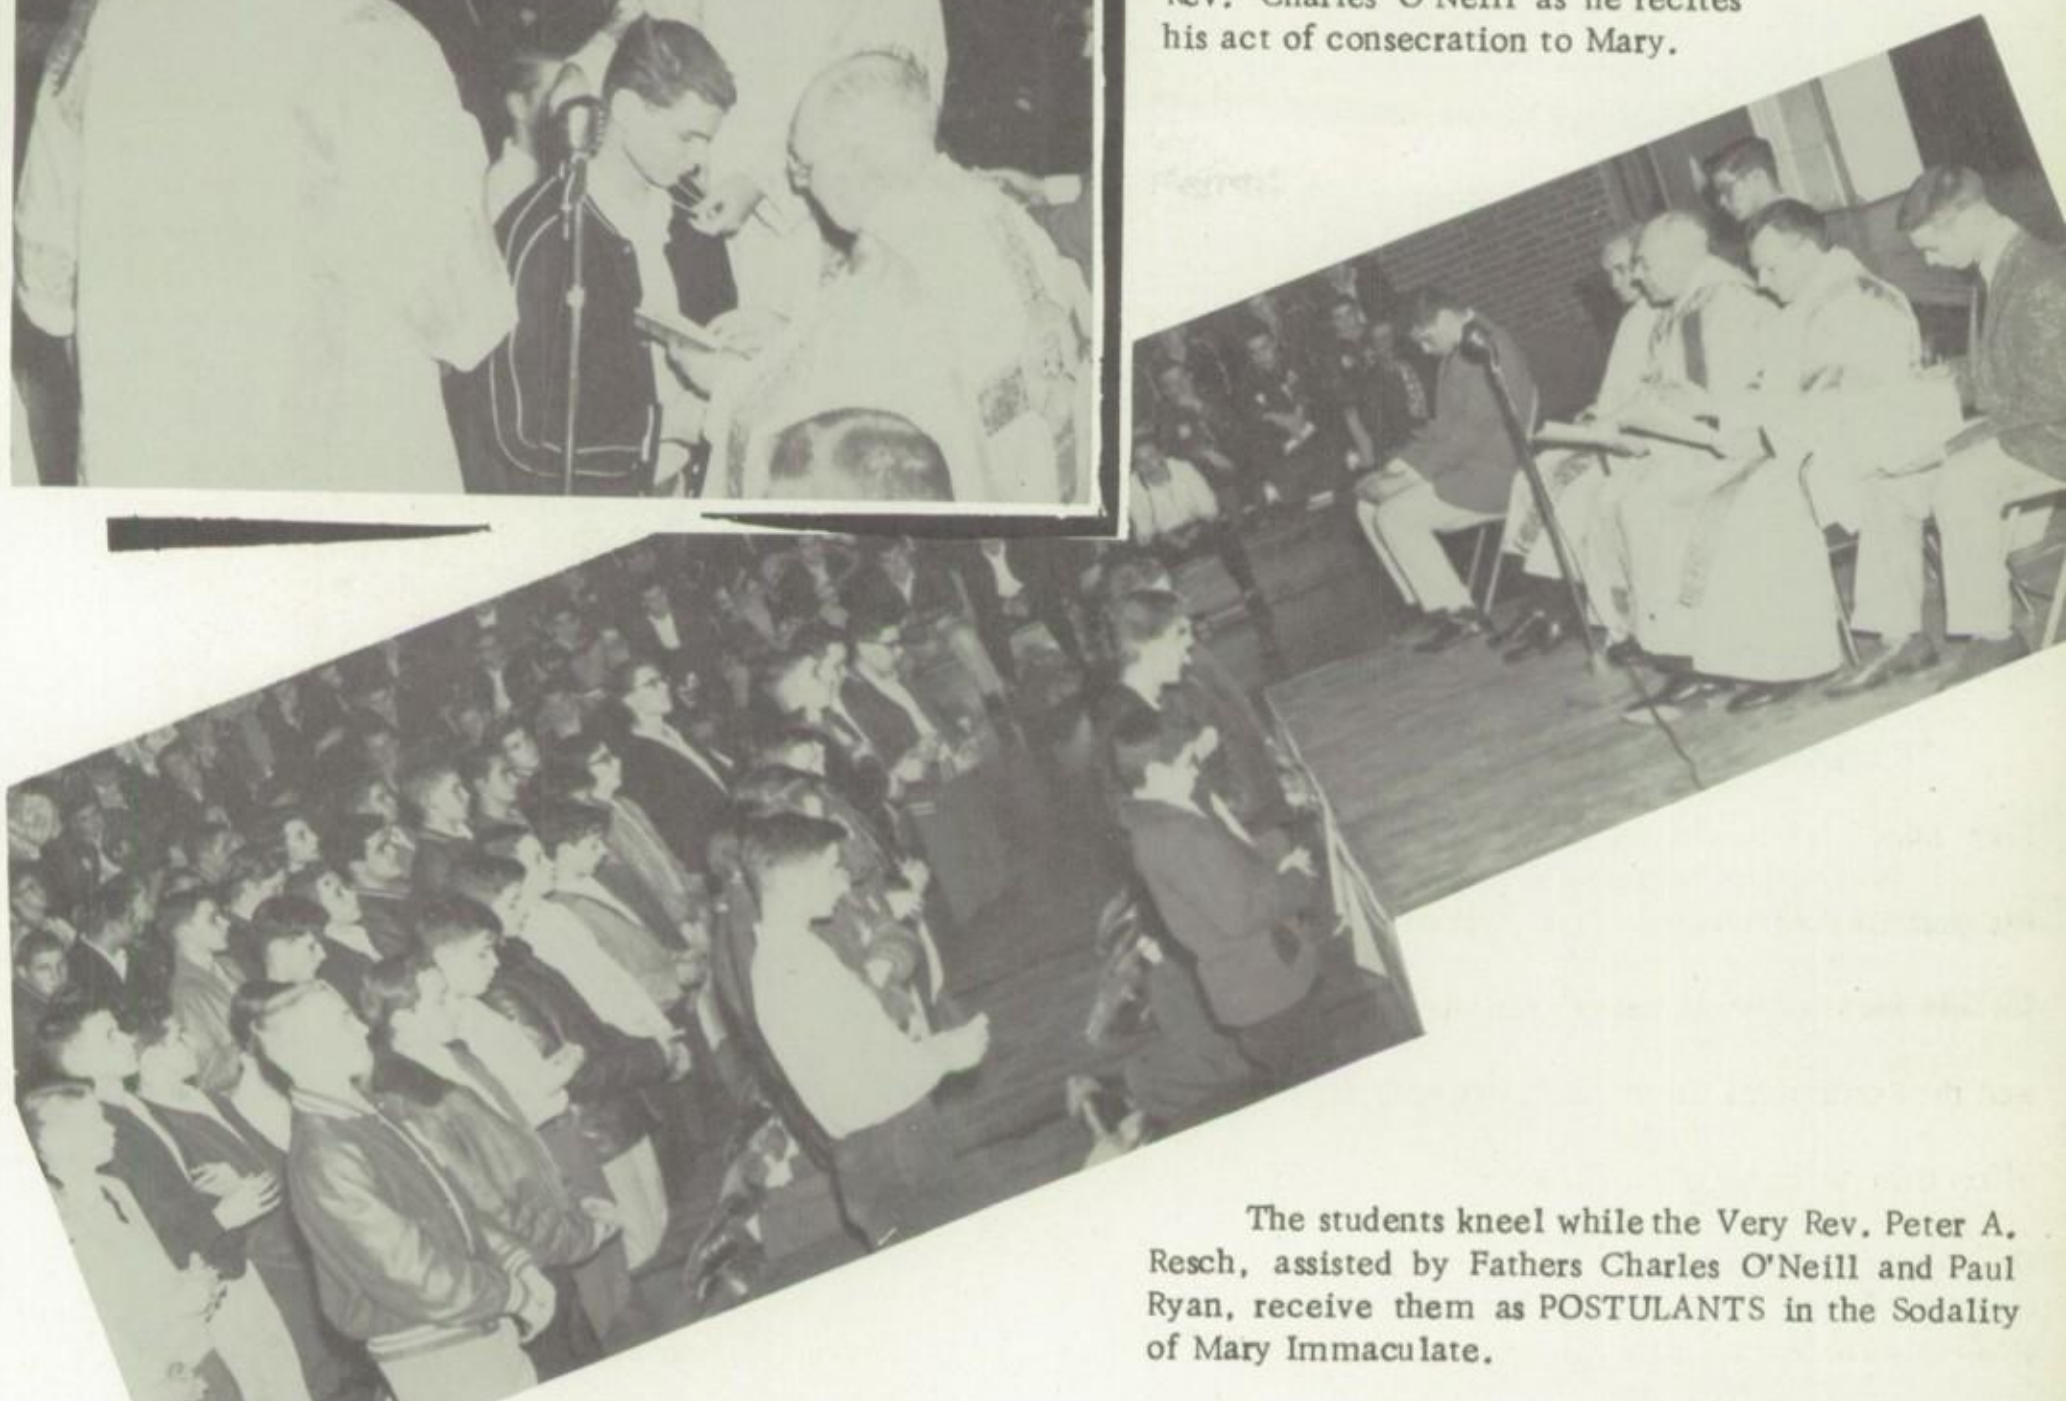
A PLANNED SPIRITUAL CAMPAIGN

The Sodality Moderators meet periodically to coordinate the activities of the four groups.

SENIOR SODALITY

JUNIOR SODALITY

Larry Putz receives the medal from Rev. Charles O'Neill as he recites his act of consecration to Mary.



The students kneel while the Very Rev. Peter A. Resch, assisted by Fathers Charles O'Neill and Paul Ryan, receive them as POSTULANTS in the Sodality of Mary Immaculate.

SOPHOMORE SODALITY

FRESHMAN SODALITY

Pat Grimes, George Morgan and Gerald Sikorski look over the pamphlets in the Marianist Vocation booth.

This booth and many others was set up in the school auditorium during Vocation Week.

Rev. Charles O'Neill preaches a Holy Hour to the Juniors as part of the closing exercises of the Vocation Week.

During the Christmas time the Sodality sponsored a Food Drive for the Poor. Pictured below are the many items of food brought in by the students. Large quantities of clothing were also brought in by the students.

Students kneel while reciting the act of ASPIRANTS in Mary's Sodality.

Don Reiss, Joe Boedges and Bill Finnegan help carry the food boxes to cars prior to delivery to the poor during the Christmas season.
